Trenton Cyrus Lodge No.5

Regular Communication
September 20th..

Brethren,

We may find ourselves in a somewhat vegetative state, a bit of a slump so to speak. So how can you invigorate yourself and contribute to the wellbeing of your fellow Brothers. I offer you a simple solution... come to lodge! Yes your lodge. That building where you learned to appreciate the values of Masonary. Where you joined a unique fraternity. Where you promised and took your oath on that "good book". A place where you realized you belonged..

The presence of a Masonic Lodge in a community is an asset. The teachings of our fraternity do not stop when one of us leaves the building. We carry them with us in our minds and hearts back into the community of which we are part. We cannot accomplish this without first returning to our lodge.

If a chair is empty at a communication whether it be an officer's place or one on the sidelines it beckons to be filled by a missing brother. Is that you?

So my brothers as your master I invite you to return to fill the seats, enjoy the fellowship and camaraderie before and after rehearsals and communications., then return to your homes and community refreshed and recharged. Spread our values and teachings by your good example and do the job you were meant to do, "make good men better".

Fraternally,

Ron Herzog W.M. 2019

From the South, June 2019

Brethren, the second of the Cardinal Virtues is Prudence. Prudence is that element of our character that circumscribes our desires. It is of particular importance to us as Masons.

As we go forth, in our daily lives we are tempted and lured by vices and superfluities which divert our minds and consciences from our true mission, from all we owe to God, our neighbors and ourselves.

In the observance of Prudence, we not only keep safe in our breasts the secrets of Masonry, but those entrusted to us by our brothers and friends. The Prudent man speaks less and listens more and measures the consequences of his speech and actions not only by their effect on him, but on all society; not only in this moment, but always.

“I ask of each Mason, of each member, of each brother, that he shall remember ever that there is upon him a peculiar obligation to show himself in every respect a good citizen; for after all, the way he can best do his duty by the ancient order to which he belongs is by reflecting credit upon that order by way in which he performs his duty as a citizen of the United States.” – Theodore Roosevelt
